

Philosophy Statement The profession of interior design encourages me to investigate my passion. I believe that passion is driven by problem solving and interior design gives me the opportunity to participate in developing a better world. It is a never ending journey of discovery, learning and development.
Through pursuing my studies I realize that the strengths I have to offer are skills that provide the opportunities to educate and support others throughout the design process.

Education Columbus College of Art and Design - Columbus, OH (CIDA accreditation)
BFA Interior Design - May 2010

- Dean's Scholarship - 2007-2010
- CCAD Faculty Scholarship - 2008
- Jean Stearns Memorial Scholarship - 2008
- Design Group Scholarship - 2009-2010
- Nominated for the Angelo Dongia Scholarship - 2009
- Deans List - 2007-2010
- Presidents List - 2007-2009

Experience Neighborhood Design Center - Columbus, OH - May - September 2009

Projects: AIA Competition walkthrough layout - Graphic Design/CS4
Bittany Hills - Landscape Design/SketchUp-CS4
Urbancrest - Interior Design/AutoCAD-FormZ
IMPACT - Interior Design/Hand Drafting/CS4
Eleanor Moore - Interior Design/AutoCad

LOTH - The Office Experts - Columbus, OH - June - November 2008
- Interior Design Intern

Projects: Office space planning - AutoCAD/CAP
Specifying furniture and materials - AutoCAD/CAP
Library manager - Relocated to new space
Project files manager - Relocated to new space
Presentation Renderings - AutoCAD/CS4/Hand rendered

Computer Skills Both PC and MAC Interfaces
Microsoft Office
AutoDesk 2010
Adobe CS4
FormZ
Google SketchUp

Volunteer Habitat For Humanity - 2008-2009
Learning Support Services (CCAD) - 2008-2009
Haven of Rest - 2001-2002